Anti-Beverage Tax Coalition to protest Mayor's Budget Address outside City Hall

Who: The Ax The Philly Bev Tax Coalition

What: The Coalition will be protesting Mayor Kenney's regressive and destructive beverage tax. Small business owners will be present this morning to explain how the tax is hurting their businesses. Since going into effect Jan. 1, the tax has caused beverage prices to skyrocket, sales to plummet and has forced companies to lay off employees and reduce hours. Several small corner stores are also in danger of closing.

When: 9-10 a.m., March 2

Where: North Side of the City Hall apron
